

Webster University Applied Educational Psychology and School Psychology Students and Faculty believe:

Twenty-four students and faculty are working on mental health advocacy projects and five students will present poster presentations and papers about Advocating for School Psychology and the Mental Health of Children and Youth in Missouri at the International School Psychology Association conference in Amsterdam, the Netherlands, July 20-23, 2016.

Our five student presenters are Erica Vaughn, Samra Sahbegovic, Laura Grizzle, Centron Felder, and Benjamin Koenig.

Webster University Applied Educational Psychology and School Psychology Students and Faculty support:

